7th Goodmayes (Al-Noor) Scout Group Annual Report 2006/2007

Welcome to 7th Goodmayes (Al-Noor) Scout Group's first ever annual report!

Bismillah, Alhamdulillah, wa-salatu wa-salamu 'ala-Rasulillah! It's hard to believe we started the 7th Goodmayes Scouts a year ago!

It all began... in the Summer of 2005 when Abid and I visited Living Islam, together with a number of other Al Noor families. We saw how much the kids enjoyed the Scout programme and resolved to start a Scout group when we got back to London. I'd been in Scouts as a youngster and knew how much I had benefited – I wanted my kids to grow up with a similar appreciation of the outdoors, confidence and ability to work together to solve problems.

We were very fortunate to band up with Abu Musa, who had been organising family camps in London and Faysal, who had really enjoyed weekend trips to the countryside.

With massive support from Chris & Jackie Geary of Ilford East District we got our first 40 Beavers and Cubs enrolled. In the first term (Summer 2006) we ran a joint programme. In the second term (Winter 2006) we split the sections and increased the numbers to around 50, with two new leaders, Munawar and Salim. By the third term (Spring 2007) we were ready to start a Scouts Section, supported by our first two female leaders, Umm AbdurRahman and Umm Tayyeb. We started two sections, enrolling nearly 50 boys and girls into Scouts.

Big thanks... None of this would have been possible without the support and encouragement of all our young people and their parents. The Trustees of Al Noor have been big supporters too, allowing us to use the school for Beavers & Cubs. Last but not least, our Leaders and Helpers have given up their own time to make the Scouts a success, without asking for anything in return. Thanks to all of you for your commitment to this excellent project – may Allah bless you and reward you with the best in this life and the next, Amin!

Your help needed... I hope that more of you will join us as Leaders and Helpers! The aim of 7th Goodmayes Scout Group is to develop young people who love Allah and His Messenger, peace and blessings upon him, and have a balanced and enthusiastic attitude to Islam and to the society in which we are living. We provide a balanced programme of fun and educational activities in an encouraging and supportive Islamic environment. We need your help to do this, no matter how big or small your commitment or how much time you have to give.

Enjoy... I hope you enjoy our AGM and this annual report. As always, please accept our apologies for our many shortcomings. We've learnt a lot and plan to do even better in the future, insha Allah.

Mustafa Davies, Chairman, 7th Goodmayes Scout Group

Playing the Game

IN making our young citizens, therefore, it is essential to try to get into them the habit of cheery co-operation, of forgetting their personal wishes and feelings in bringing about the good of the whole business in which they are engaged -- whether it be work or play. One can teach the boy* that it is exactly as in football. You must play in your place and play the game; don't try to be referee when you are playing half-back; don't stop playing because you have had enough of the game, but shove along, cheerily and hopefully, with an eye on the goal in order that your side may win, even though you may yourself get a kick on the shins or a muddy fall in helping it.

But the best form of instruction of all for a Scoutmaster to give is by the force of example. It is essential if he is going to succeed in putting the right character into his boys that he should himself practise what he preaches. Boys are imitative, and what the Scoutmaster gives off, that they pick up and reflect. Instructions, and especially orders, are apt to have different and even opposite effects with boys -- order a boy not to smoke and he is at once tempted to try it as an adventure; but give him the example, show him that any fool can smoke but a wise Scout doesn't, and it is another matter.

Therefore, it is of first importance that every Scout-master, with this great responsibility on his shoulders, should examine himself very closely, suppress any of the minor faults which he may -- in fact, is bound to -- possess, and train himself to practise what he preaches, so as to give the right example to his lads for the shaping of their lives, characters, and careers. It is laid down in our handbook that a Scoutmaster should go through a period of three months' probation before getting finally appointed.

The object of this is to enable him to find out whether Scouting really suits him after all, whether he is capable of treading down little personal worries and pinpricks, can endure the many preliminary difficulties and disappointments, can fit himself into the place assigned to him, and loyally carry out instructions, though they may not be exactly what he would like; whether he can, in a word, play in his place and play the game for the good of the whole.

If he can do this he will be doing the most valuable work that a man can do, viz. teach his younger brothers the great virtues of endurance and discipline, pluck and unselfishness. If, on the other hand, he cannot, his only honourable course is to resign in preference to the unmanly one -- typical, by the way, of men who fail in whatever line of life -- of whining about his so-called rights, complaining of his bad luck.

July, 1910

* Scouting was founded by Robert Baden-Powell on 1st August 1907 with the first experimental camp for boys on Brownsea Island, Dorset. "Scouting for Boys" was published in 1908. Girl Guides was founded in 1910. Wolf Cubs started in 1916. BP died in 1941. Beavers were introduced in 1982. Girls were admitted to all sections in 1993.

The Value of Camp Life

I CANNOT impress on Scoutmasters too highly the value of the camp in the training of Scouts; in fact, I think that its whole essence hangs on this.

Many Scoutmasters who value the moral side of our training are almost inclined to undervalue the importance of the camp, but the camp is everything to the boys. We have to appeal to their enthusiasm and tastes in the first place, if we are ever going to do any good in educating them.

An eminent educational authority assured me only to-day that our school education is all on wrong lines; that book learning was introduced by the monks in order to kill the more manly training in skill at arms and hunting which, in the Middle Ages, occupied the time of the boys, and which undoubtedly produced so large a percentage of men of character among them. It was done with a narrow-minded aim, and although it has done some good in certain lines, it has done infinite harm to our race in others.

He said: "You should first of all develop the natural character of the boy by encouraging him in the natural athletic exercises which tend to make him manly, brave, obedient, and unselfish; later give him the desire for reading for himself which will eventually lead him on to study for himself. The fallacy of trying to force him to read what the pedagogue wants him to know is the secret of so much ignorance and absence of studious work amongst our lads to-day."

This same authority would like to see Scouting or some similar scheme introduced into our continuation schools, and attendance at these made obligatory for all boys of fourteen to sixteen.

I hope that his wish may yet be gratified. I believe it will be if Scoutmasters continue in the way in which they have begun and prove to the education authorities in their neighbourhood the educative value which underlies our Movement.

April, 1911

The Scout Promise

In the name of Allah, most Kind, most Merciful, I promise that I will do my best to do my duty to God and to the country in which I am living, to help other people and to keep the Scout Law.

On Religion ***

Development of outlook naturally begins with a respect for God, which we may best term "Reverence". Reverence to God and reverence for one's neighbour and reverence for oneself as a servant of God, is the basis of every form of religion. The method of expression of reverence to God varies with every sect and denomination. What sect or denomination a boy belongs to depends, as a rule, on his parents' wishes. It is they who decide. It is our business to respect their wishes and to second their efforts to inculcate reverence, whatever form of religion the boy professes. There may be many difficulties relating to the definition of the religious training in our Movement where so many different denominations exist, and the details of the expression of duty to God have, therefore, to be left largely in the hands of the local authority. But there is no difficulty at all in suggesting the line to take on the human side, since direct duty to one's neighbour is implied in almost every form of belief."

Aids to Scoutmastership, 1919

* All Members of the Scout Movement are encouraged to "make every effort to progress in the understanding and observance of the Promise to do their best to do their duty to God, belong to some religious body and carry into daily practice what they profess". About a third of the 28 million Scouts world-wide are Muslim.

3. Sponsored Walk Report

To raise money for Comic Relief, our Scout Leaders arranged to take us on a sponsored walk. The walk took place on Sunday 11th March 2007. I was looking forward to this very much.

Our walk started at the Gardens of Peace in Hainault. We all made our way there in the morning. When we had all registered, the organisers put us into different groups. We had five groups in total and about 10 children in each group. The turn-out was good. Then we all set out on our adventure, group by group.

From the Gardens of Peace, we walked to Woodford Mosque. There we prayed Dhuhr Salah and we had our lunch. After lunch, onward we went to our next destination, making a brief encounter with Redbridge Mosque. After an exuberating and exhilarating walk we reached Valentines Park. We made a necessary break as we were all very exhausted. The break revitalised us and we were ready for our next step.

We assembled into our groups and set off to our next adventure, which took us to Albert Road Mosque, where we prayed Asr Salah. We went on to our next destination, which was Eton Road Community Centre. Lastly we reached our goal, we had made it! This last stop was Barking Al Madina Mosque. After Maghrib Salah, we had dinner, provided by our Scout leaders.

Overall, I really enjoyed myself even though at the end of the walk my feet were aching very much. I felt that I have contributed a little bit of sacrifice for a good cause. I think of the people who have to walk a long distance to fetch water and food and I am thankful to Allah, subhanahu wa ta'ala, for making our lives so easy.

Wearing red noses girl and boy scouts from Goodmayes have visited all eleven mosques in the borough on foot. Scouts as young as six have been sponsored for the 14-mile hike for Comic Relief.

Walking around Redbridge Mosques on Red Nose day was my longest ever journey on foot. When we started our journey from the Garden of Peace Muslim Cemetery in Hainault and walked to South Woodford Mosque, the weather was very good.

My group managed to visit all twelve Mosques in Redbridge & Barking. It involved 14 miles of walking but we all were so determined with high spiritual energy to complete it.

At the Maghrib (sunset) prayer we arrived at Barking Mosque which was our last destination. After prayers we had dinner together, and then we all went home. I was so tired physically but so delighted mentally.

7th Goodmayes (Al-Noor) Scout Group Annual Report 2006/2007

The walk was very interesting and I wish we can do this kind of Scout activity more often, in order to know and love each other.

Finally, I want to thank our Scouts leaders and the rest of the people who organized this charity walk.

Scouts Boys Section

It was a beautiful Sunday morning, when the Al-Noor Scouts met at Gardens of Peace Cemetery in Hainault. We had gathered to complete a sponsored walk for charity, to raise money for Comic Relief – for the needy kids around the world.

There were five groups and several parents. In our group we had seven children and three adults to walk with us. We also met two local councilors, Lindy & Noor, who came to see us start the walk and contributed to our collection.

We set off at 11:30 and went to all of the places we had planned to visit on our way. We had planned to visit all Mosques in Redbridge and Barking. We went to South Woodford Mosque first, then Gants Hill, we had some fun at Valentines Park on the way and then went to Balfour Road Mosque, Albert Road Mosque, Eton Road and finally to Barking Mosque.

We enjoyed our walk very much, learned new things and had lots of fun all the way. We arrived at our final destination to complete the walk at 5:30pm. We rested, prayed and had dinner before we went home at 6:00pm.

On Monday our legs were aching and we had cramps in our legs, but we still went to school!

This was made possible with help from all scouts group helpers. We raised over £900 for charity. Well done to all and look forward to more events like this to help our community.

Scouts Boys Section

We woke up on a nice sunny morning which we were grateful for.

We all congregated at the Gardens of Peace cemetery precisely at 10:30, we met and greeted 2 councillors who gave an encouraging talk. Thereafter we were assigned our groups. We were also given a short speech by our scout leaders who reminded us how to behave during the walk.

As we started off, I wondered how it was going to be and whether it was going to be a success. After a shaky start of bad map-reading we soon got on our way. It was a long way to South Woodford Mosque, which was the first stop. There were some people lingering at the back, mucking about and some people at the front doing the work.

We soon got tired and we needed to have a little food and rest in the park. However I had to admit I did not need the break. Then we headed for the rest of the Mosques. We had to speed up because we only had a little bit of time. Some of the Mosques were closed so we just passed them by. We soon arrived at my local mosque, Balfour Road. We said our prayers and then hurried along, stopping for ice-cream on the way. We were anticipating the end of the journey and before we knew it we got to our last stop, Barking Mosque. There we ate and offered our sunset prayers. Then we went home to see our parents again.

Overall, it was a good fun event for a good cause and we hope to do it again next year!

4. Programme for Summer Term

Alhamdulillah, as you can see from the latest programme, there is plenty going on during the summer term, insha Allah! Please note a number of changes from previous programmes.

Due to limited availability of places, we will have to select scouts to attend certain events, based on attendance and wearing a smart uniform, so make sure you don't miss any sessions! You may lose your place altogether if you miss three sessions in a row without informing your section leader.

If you have any questions about the programme, please get in touch with your section leader.

Reserves Policy

The Group's policy on reserves is to hold sufficient resources to continue the charitable activities of the group should income and fundraising activities fall short. The Group Executive Committee considers that the group should hold a sum equivalent to 6 months running costs, circa £500.

The Group held reserves of approximately £1000 against this at year end. This is above the level required for operating expenses. However this can be explained by need to purchase resources and for Adult training.

The above receipts and payments account and statement of assets and liabilities were approved by the Trustees on 26/Mar/2007 (the date of the Executive Committee meeting that approved the accounts) and signed on their behalf by:
